Sidney Chuckas (he/they) learns, creates, and educates through his multidisciplinary art practices with a larger mission to dismantle the institutionalized marginalization of minoritized bodies. Dancing since the age of five at Dance Center Evanston, being a part of the Evanston Dance Ensemble and ede2, and graduating from the USC Gloria Kaufman School of Dance, has taught Chuckas to utilize his diverse experiences to thoughtfully engage in the creative practice of choreography for stage and screen as well as in dance education. As a current dancer with Ballet BC, he has performed works by Sharon Eyal and Marco Goecke, premiered roles in works by Dorotea Saykaly, Mehdi Walerski and Out Innerspace and commercially danced for Brandy, Chance the Rapper, and Paris Jackson. Chuckas is excited to continue feeding his passion for inclusive, collaborative innovation and creativity.

Private Lessons are available by request throughout Winter Break. If interested, please submit the digital form on the Registration page of the DCE website.
